

THE ZIONIST ORGANIZATION OF AMERICA

EDUCATION • ADVOCACY • OUTREACH

Founded in 1897, the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA) is one of the most active and largest pro-Israel organizations in the U.S. It has a thriving chapter in the Philadelphia region and 30,000 members nationwide. The ZOA works to:

- Strengthen American-Israeli relations and support pro-Israel legislation on Capitol Hill
- Provide educational materials and activities about Israel and the Middle East
- Promote a positive image of Israel
- Reach out to younger Jews and non-Jews to ensure the continuation of Zionism
- Combat anti-Israel and anti-Semitic propaganda and bias in the media, in education and elsewhere

Israel won its war of independence in 1948. Yet today in many ways it is still fighting the same battle. Help us to make sure Israel is safe and strong. Philadelphia ZOA: Fighting for Israel – and Winning!

Join the Greater Philadelphia District Now!

Basic annual membership dues support the national efforts of ZOA. To help the work of ZOA to promote and defend Israel in the Greater Philadelphia area, please make an additional contribution to the Philadelphia District. You will receive informative emails, quarterly newsletters, invitations to local events as well as action alerts about ways you can help Israel. Please join and make your donation now while you are thinking about it.
