Ads in the Greater Philadelphia ZOA Gala Tribute Book/Ad Journal are great opportunities to promote your business or service to new audiences who will appreciate your support for our organization. Businesses and service providers in many industries are regular advertisers.

Notices in the Greater Philadelphia ZOA Gala Tribute Book/Ad Journal are a great way to congratulate or salute our honorees, make a positive statement about Israel, or affirm that you support the vital work ZOA does throughout the year. It is our 122th anniversary this year. Individuals and families from all walks of life participate each year in this book.

Gala tickets are available for $180 each through August 30. Tickets purchased after that will be $200 each.

Remember: Save money with an ad or notice that includes tickets!

Purchase tickets and ads by check to save Eventbrite fees!

Your contribution is tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.

Congratulations!

Mazel Tov!

Well-done!

Much-deserved!

Thank you for all you do!

I support Israel!

G-d bless Israel!

I support ZOA!

- √ Be a part of this annual tradition — join the many businesses, firms and practices that advertise in our book each year.
- √ Reach potential new upscale customers or clients
- √ Show current customers that you support ZOA's vital work in the Greater Philadelphia region
- √ The book will also be available on our Web site and social media and emailed to more than 2,000 members and supporters.

Proceeds from our book support ZOA's vital educational, advocacy and outreach initiatives that benefit Israel, America and the local Jewish community.

Our organization was founded in 1897 and we are the largest and most active such group in eastern Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey and Delaware. We have members in all three states with the largest concentration in the metropolitan Philadelphia area. Our demographics range from young parents, to "seasoned" citizens of all ages. Most of our members are current or retired professionals.
